WHAT IS YOUR TREASURE?

Jesus touches our most human interests through these three comparisons: the treasure, the pearl and the net, as if wanting to tell us that it would be the last straw not to choose the best when we have it within reach of our hands. What is worth the most is the happiness we will have in heaven forever.

Sisters and brothers:

1. The meaning of "treasure" and "pearl" is very close and understandable to our mentality of modern men. We constantly have to make important, valid and profitable choices. Our sense of economy requires us to be vigilant so as not to waste energy on inconsistent objectives. What attitude should we assume towards the goods we have received from God? It is necessary to make an assessment and a choice. When I find the highest good, I must put off all the others and be glad for it.
2. Only the person of Jesus Christ can fulfill our aspirations; and He has revealed to us in a thousand ways that the first thing is God, the salvation of our soul, the love of our neighbor and then there are other creatures with a relative value. In the meditation on the principle and foundation, Saint Ignatius of Loyola tells us that: "Man is created to praise, reverence and serve God and, through this, save his soul". Creatures serve us as they lead us to God. How to distinguish what is important from what is secondary? How to order them in a fair hierarchy? To be good Christians you have to learn to let go of things. Only God is irreplaceable, the rest is relative, limited and subordinate to the Kingdom of heaven.
3. The treasure has a price; it is consistency. Our faith must be confessed and celebrated, but above all lived. Believing involves denying yourself in order to follow God's ways. The Kingdom of Heaven can only be entered through the narrow gate. The fatigue of faith is always fruitful like the grain of wheat that rots and dies to produce much fruit.

It is worth asking ourselves: Has the discovery of the precious pearl and the treasure made me change all the objectives of my existence? Has a layer of dust fallen on my conscience because it is routine, fatigue, lack of enthusiasm or perseverance that dulls its shine? Have I gotten used to always having the treasure of grace in my hands and I no longer appreciate all its value? Have I not, perhaps, already sold the treasure of the Kingdom, exchanging it for the cheap products that the world offers me?

Christ invites us today to undertake the search for "the Truth that is He, for the Way that is He, to give us the Life that is He", abandoning everything to acquire it. The look of our hearts must always be oriented towards the mystery of God, strengthened with the hope of constant growth that brings us closer and closer to heaven.

Palabras del Párroco

Domingo, 30 de julio de 2023 - XVII domingo de tiempo ordinario - Ciclo A

Lecturas: 1 Reyes 3, 5. 7-12, Salmo 118: "Yo amo, Señor, tus mandamientos", Romanos 8, 28-30, Mateo 13, 44-52

¿CUÁL ES TU TESORO?

Jesús toca nuestros intereses más humanos a través de estas tres comparaciones: el tesoro, la perla y la red, como queriendo decirnos que sería el colmo no elegir lo mejor cuando lo tenemos al alcance de nuestras manos. Lo que más vale es la felicidad que tendremos en el cielo para siempre.

Hermanas y hermanos:

1. El significado del "tesoro" y de "la perla" resulta muy cercano y comprensible a nuestra mentalidad de hombres modernos. Constantemente tenemos que hacer opciones importantes, válidas y rentables. Nuestro sentido de la economía nos exige estar atentos para no derrochar energías en objetivos poco consistentes. ¿Qué actitud debemos asumir frente a los bienes que hemos recibido de Dios? Es necesario hacer una valoración y una elección. Cuando encuentro el bien más alto, debo dejar para luego todos los demás y alegrarme por ello.

2. Solamente la persona de Jesucristo puede llenar nuestras aspiraciones; y Él nos ha revelado de mil maneras que lo primero es Dios, la salvación de nuestra alma, el amor al prójimo y luego están las demás criaturas con un valor relativo. En la meditación del principio y fundamento, San Ignacio de Loyola nos dice que: "El hombre es criado para alabar, hacer reverencia y servir a Dios y, mediante esto, salvar su alma". Las criaturas nos sirven en cuanto que nos llevan a Dios ¿Cómo distinguir lo importante de lo secundario? ¿Cómo ordenarlos en una justa jerarquía? Para ser buenos cristianos hay que aprender a desprenderse de las cosas. Sólo Dios es insustituible, el resto es relativo, limitado y subordinado al Reino de los cielos.

3. El tesoro tiene un precio; es la coherencia. Nuestra fe debe ser confesada y celebrada, pero sobre todo vivida. Creer implica negarse a sí mismo para seguir los caminos de Dios. Al Reino de los cielos sólo se puede entrar por la puerta estrecha. La fatiga de la fe es siempre fecunda como el grano de trigo que se pudre y muere para producir mucho fruto.

Conviene preguntarnos: ¿El descubrimiento de la perla preciosa y del tesoro me ha hecho cambiar todos los objetivos de mi existencia? ¿En mi conciencia ha caído una capa de polvo que es la rutina, el cansancio, la falta de entusiasmo o de perseverancia que opaca su brillo? ¿Me he acostumbrado a tener siempre entre mis manos el tesoro de la gracia y ya no aprecio todo su valor? ¿No habré, quizá, vendido ya el tesoro del Reino cambiándolo por los productos baratos que me ofrece el mundo?

Cristo nos invita hoy a emprender la búsqueda de "la Verdad que es Él, por el Camino que es Él, para darnos la Vida que es Él", abandonándolo todo para adquirirla. La mirada de nuestro corazón debe estar siempre orientada hacia el misterio de Dios, fortalecida con la esperanza en un crecimiento constante que nos acerca más y más al cielo.
