The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe– Sunday, November 20, 2022
Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo - domingo, 20 de noviembre de 2022

From the Pastor's Desk...

Sunday, November 20, 2022 – The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe - Cycle C
Readings: 2 Samuel 5:1-3, Psalm 122 "Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord", Colossians 1:12-20, Luke 23:35-43

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, this Sunday being the last Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe and look ahead to celebrate Thanksgiving in the United States on Thursday. The solemnity of Christ the King marks the end of the liturgical year. Though this year has been filled with many challenges, when we look back there are many incidents that happened that call on us to give thanks to God. The song goes, "Count your blessings and name them one by one".

Let us ponder on the beautiful poem of the "footprints in the sand". "One night I dreamed a dream. As I was walking along the beach with my Lord. Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, One belonging to me and one to my Lord. After the last scene of my life flashed before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that at many times along the path of my life, especially at the very lowest and saddest times, there was only one set of footprints. This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it. "Lord, you said once I decided to follow you, You'd walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed You the most, You would leave me." He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you Never, ever, during your trials and testings. When you saw only one set of footprints, It was then that I carried you."

Last week, we celebrated our 70th anniversary. A day that we came as a family of God to give thanks to him and to celebrate his blessings. The Lord has been faithful to us, and we continue to thank him and one another. I wish to thank each one of you for the blessings you bring to the parish. Please remember, that it is not the Happy people who are thankful but the thankful people who are happy. Happy Thanksgiving! God bless you in the name of the father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Fr. Paschal Chester, SVD.

Estamos trayendo a San Vicente de Paúl a la vida de nuestra parroquia y deseamos invitar a cualquier persona interesada en obedecer el mandamiento de nuestro Señor de servir a los necesitados en nuestro vecindario a dar sus nombres al Padre.

El objetivo es reunir a un grupo de feligreses que tengan el deseo de servir a Cristo ayudando a los pobres.

We are bringing St. Vincent de Paul to the life of our parish and we wish to invite anyone interested in obeying our Lord's commandment to serve those in need in our neighborhood to give their names to Father.

The goal is to gather together a group of parishioners who have a desire to serve Christ by helping the poor.

Thanksgiving Baskets

We are collecting goods items for Thanksgiving Baskets that will be given to families in need. You can bring canned and dried goods to the office or leave them at the back of the church. If you would like to donate a turkey, make a monetary contribution or know a family in need, please contact Dr. Maria Okeke 850-668-4788 or the office. The Baskets will be giving to the people on Sunday, Nov 20. Thank you

Donaciones de comida para Acción de Gracias

Estamos recogiendo alimentos para canastas de acción de gracias que se dará a las familias en necesidad. Puedes traer productos enlatados y secos a la oficina o dejar en la parte posterior de la iglesia. Si desea donar un pavo, hacer una contribución monetaria o saber una familia en necesidad, póngase en contacto con la Dr. Maria Okeke 850-668-4788 o a la oficina. Las canastas se entregarán el domingo, 20 de noviembre.

Black Catholic History Month

History of Black Catholic

1565: St. Augustine, Florida - Blacks, both slave and free, help to found this oldest town in the United States. In 1693 Spain offers freedom in Florida to slaves who convert to Catholicism. Until 1763, these freed slaves lived in a community northeast of St. Augustine. Gracia Real de Santa Teresa de Mose, or Fort Mose, established in 1738, thus becomes the first free black town in the United States.

1781: Los Angeles - Governor Don Felipe de Neve recruits 11 families to settle on the Porciuncula River—now Los Angeles. The settlers are all Catholic, a mix of Africans, Spanish, and American Indians. Meanwhile, Maryland's black Catholic population grows to 3,000 as a result of Jesuit evangelization in the region.

1829: Oblate Sisters of Providence - A handful of women from Baltimore's Haitian refugee colony begin to educate local children in their homes. With the support of the archbishop, in 1829 they create the Oblate Sisters of Providence. The first superior is Elizabeth Lange, born in Cuba of Haitian parents. A later archbishop dismisses the need for an order of black religious, but the sisters find new advocates among the Redemptorists and in Saint John Neumann, then archbishop of Philadelphia. Their ministry spreads to Philadelphia and New Orleans.

1839: In Supremo Apostolatus - In this 1839 apostolic letter, Pope Gregory XVI condemns the slave trade as the "inhuman traffic in Negroes." Rome outshines the U.S. in race relations from the 17th to 20th centuries. Many U.S. bishops as well as men's and women's religious orders in this period own slaves, sometimes advocating for their proper treatment. Bishop John England of Charleston, South Carolina defends the American domestic slave trade, arguing that Pope Gregory's apostolic letter refers only to slaves imported by the Spanish and Portuguese. Though claiming he is not personally in favor of slavery, he says it was a "question for the legislature and not for me."

Palabras del Párroco

Domingo, 20 de noviembre de 2022 - Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo - Ciclo C
Lecturas: 2 Samuel 5:1-3, Salmo 121 "Vayamos con alegría al encuentro del Señor.", Colosenses 1:12-20, Lucas 23:35-43

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, siendo este domingo el último domingo del año litúrgico, celebramos la solemnidad de nuestro Señor Jesucristo Rey del Universo y esperamos celebrar el Día de Acción de Gracias en los Estados Unidos el jueves. La solemnidad de Cristo Rey marca el final del año litúrgico. Aunque este año ha estado lleno de muchos desafíos, cuando miramos hacia atrás, hay muchos incidentes que nos llaman a dar gracias a Dios. La canción dice: "Cuenta tus bendiciones y nómbralas una por una".

Reflexionemos sobre el bello poema de las "huellas en la arena". "Una noche soñé un sueño. Mientras caminaba por la playa con mi Señor. A través del cielo oscuro destellaron escenas de mi vida. Para cada escena, noté dos conjuntos de huellas en la arena, una que me pertenece y otra a mi Señor. Después de que la última escena de mi vida pasó ante mí, volví a mirar las huellas en la arena. Noté que en muchos momentos a lo largo del camino de mi vida, especialmente en los momentos más bajos y tristes, solo había un par de huellas. Esto realmente me preocupó, así que le pregunté al Señor al respecto. "Señor, dijiste que una vez que decidí seguirte, caminarías conmigo todo el camino. Pero me di cuenta de que durante los momentos más tristes y problemáticos de mi vida, solo había un par de huellas. No entiendo por qué, cuando más te necesitaba, me dejabas." Él susurró: "Mi preciosa niña, te amo y nunca te dejaré nunca, nunca, durante tus pruebas y pruebas. Cuando viste solo un par de huellas, fue entonces cuando te cargué".

La semana pasada celebramos nuestro 70 aniversario. Un día que vinimos como familia de Dios para darle gracias y celebrar sus bendiciones de parte de él. El Señor ha sido fiel con nosotros, y continuamos agradeciéndole a él y unos a otros. Deseo agradecer a cada uno de ustedes por las bendiciones que traen a la parroquia. Por favor, recuerda que no son las personas felices las que son agradecidas, sino las personas agradecidas las que son felices. ¡Feliz día de acción de gracias! Dios les bendiga en el nombre del padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo.

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Father all-powerful, Your gifts of love are countless and Your goodness infinite. On Thanksgiving Day we come before You with gratitude for Your kindness: open our hearts to concern for our fellow men and women, so that we may share Your gifts in loving service.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Oración del Día de Acción de Gracias

Padre todopoderoso, tus dones de amor son innumerables y tu bondad infinita. En el Día de Acción de Gracias venimos ante ti con gratitud por tu amabilidad: abre nuestros corazones a la preocupación por nuestros semejantes, para que podamos compartir tus dones en un servicio amoroso.

Te lo pedimos por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo y el Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

Amén.
